

Multicultural Festival in Kraków
Saturday 25th February 2017

Anti-discrimination Workshop

10:00 - 12:00

Organizer: Galicia Jewish Museum

Place: Galicia Jewish Museum, ul. Dajwór 18

The basis for the peaceful coexistence of different groups of people is tolerance. But can tolerance be learned? Is prejudice wrong? Where does hate speech begin and freedom of speech end? How can we respond to violence or discrimination?

During the course, participants will learn not only what exclusion, stereotyping and prejudice are; they will trace the process of discrimination at the level of micro-inequalities, they learn the importance and role of a witness in conflict situations and learn what hate speech is and how to counteract it.

Workshop requires registration.

For this purpose, please contact Katarzyna Kotula by email (katarzyna.kotula@galiciajewishmuseum.org) or telephone (12 421 68 42).

Survival Polish – Open Day in Prolog

10:00 – 14:00

Organizer: Prolog School of Polish

Place: Prolog, ul. Bronowicka 37

Presentation of materials to learn Polish.

Presentation of teaching materials and possibility to talk with leading editors.

Presentation of the interactive version of "Survival Polish Crash Course".

Book fair (up to 25% discount).

Demonstration classes of Polish language at various levels (please e-mail us your declaratory level).

Possibility to determine their level of English.

Open Day at Accent School of Polish (ul. Kącik 9):

11.00 - 12.00 Demonstration Lesson "Survival Polish" (Barbara Sosnowska - Babik) - learning basic phrases in Polish - daily communication for beginners!

12.00 - 13.30 Phonetic Workshops with a speech therapist and teacher of Polish as a foreign language (Joanna Głowczyńska). Perfect for all who do not know how to pronounce the name of the street where they live or the names of Polish colleague. For all levels – a tongue training session!

13.30 - 14.00 Animated History of Poland (in English) - Joanna Hajda. Polish history in 8 minutes? It may be interesting - for all who want to quickly and in a nice way learn about the most important events in Polish history. The course is conducted in English.

14.00 -16.00 Culinary workshops "How to cook a typical Polish dinner?" Katarzyna Roś. For all those who want to test their skills in Polish cuisine - we will cook together and EAT :-)! In addition to all: delicious apples straight from the orchard, tea, coffee, interesting conversations about Poland and the Polish language!

Among the participants of the Open Day we will draw free courses of Polish!
We invite ALL FOREIGNERS !!!

Panel discussion in Spółdzielnia Ogniw (ul. Pauliańska 28)

13:00 – 15:00

Organizer: INTERKULTURALNI PL Association

The debate will be attended by the following persons:

prof. Dariusz Niedźwiecki - Jagiellonian Centre for Migration Studies

Magdalena Zych - Ethnographic Museum

Ewa Piekarska and Małgorzata Ołasińska-Chart - Polish Medical Mission

Anna Strama and Alicja Vauleon- authors of articles in the book "Migrants, migration. What you should know in order to have an opinion", Halina Niec Legal Aid Centre

During the debate, we would like to demystify stereotypes associated with migration movements, in order to draw a reliable picture of both the reasons why people migrate, and point out the consequences of such migration in areas such as social life, economics, demography, and culture. We will be talking about the causes of migration flows, ability to resolve humanitarian crises that generate refuge, and presenting the real situation in the countries suffering such crises. We will try to answer questions about how to tame migrants in host societies, and provide them with the possibility of integration.

Multilingual afternoon for families with children and friends

<https://www.facebook.com/events/249046322209616/>

Organizer: Multi Club and the Art of Living Foundation

Place: ul. Podbrzezie 6/8, 31-054 Krakow

Contact and registration: Ola Mykowska; kontakt@klubmulti.pl; Tel 500 000 592

Registration by mail with indication of classes, number of people (children) and the determination of the childrens' age.

In case of large numbers of applications those submitted first will save rights to attend.

Fee: Classes are free of charge, but you can make free donations to the vase. Welcome. :)

14.45-15.30 Art ecological islands, workshops of Caring Parenthood

14.45-15.30 Ebru Island for adults and children over 6 years: Polish, English, Turkish

Ebru means painting on the water is an old technique of painting of natural paper, silk or leather decoration using paints floating on the water surface, which when transferred to paper or other substrate create forms resembling marble pattern, flowers, plants.

The ingredients used for the creation of ebru: silk, paint and plant extracts are natural.

Performer: Nalan Avhan,

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RAciRFZr4V0>

14.45-15.30 Artctic Island for children from 1-6: Polish, English

We will paint with your fingers, blow ink blots in fancy shapes, making forms from different types of play dough (DIY recipes included). We will suggest how to create unique masterpieces from natural materials that can be found in almost every kitchen.

14.45 - 15.30 Small workshop presenting Caring Parenthood patterns to parents; Polish English or German

How to build warm, deep relationships in the family while respecting their autonomy and individual needs. We invite all who are curious about what "caring parenting" is, how it can inspire family life in order to maintain a balance between the needs of all the loved ones.

Workshop will be held by Camilla Włodarski, mother of 3 children, family coach, graduated from, among others, postgraduate studies in Austria Bindungsorientierter Familienbegleiter in the field of Caring Parenthood.

15.45-16.45 Multilingual Wawel Dragon, for adults and children of all ages, Polish, English, Italian and others.

Do you know that Wawel Dragon, as every true dragon, was multilingual? Because two heads are better than one, and yet as every dragon has at least two heads, has two tongues in his jaws... We invite you to listen to the stories of Krakow dragon in several languages. Improvised theatrical and musical entertainment will be lead by:

Dobrawa Branicka - Polish philologist, teatrologist, artetherapist

Agata Jarosz - actress, working with the Northcott Theatre in Exeter, England

Wojciech Koczwara- Polish philologist, German translator

Andrea Tosi - musician, a lover of world music

Agnieszka Masternak- psychologist, teatrologist, author of guides to Italy, singer

Loan Ratajczyk- French translator, actor

17.00-18.15 Acro Yoga for families with children of all ages

Acro Yoga is a combination of psychometrics, stretching, elements of yoga, acrobatics and functional exercises. Come to enliven, relax and see how interesting it can be.

Performer/Trainer: Krzysztof Satora

Krakow Time Machine

13:00-15: 00 (or when two rounds: 13 - 15, 15 - 17)

Organizer: Department of Comparative Studies of Civilizations of Jagiellonian University

Place: Collegium Broscianum, ul. Grodzka 52, room 118

RPG based on the multicultural history of Krakow

Description: Krakow, a real cocktail of ethnicity, for many centuries had been inhabited by representatives of different cultures. We invite you to the game, in which through the time machine, we will move you to the important landmarks in the history of our city and its inhabitants. Participants will join different teams representing ethnic minorities, whose job will be to perform assigned tasks, allowing them to move to the next era in the history of Krakow. The aim of the game is to reach to the present.

Language: Polish (or in case of two rounds: first round - Polish, second round - English, only in the case of relevant number of English-speaking participants)

Number of participants: 10 - 15 persons, aged 16 and above

Decorating carnival masks. Workshops for children

15:30 - 17:30

Organizer: Villa Decius Association

Place: Villa Decius, ul. 28 lipca 1943r. 17a

We invite children and their parents to participate in workshops of decorating carnival masks. During the workshops children will not only learn how to make and decorate a mask in a creative and artistic way but also learn about tradition of making masks in different parts of the world.

Workshops will be held in Polish and English.

Registration is required as number of participants is limited.

You may register by calling 605 999 497 or by email: aleksandra@villa.org.pl until February 20th.

Why do we fear the Tajiks? Slide show devoted to contemporary Tajikistan and its socio-political situation.

17:00 - 18:30

Organizer: Department of Comparative Studies of Civilizations of Jagiellonian University

Time and place: Department of Comparative Civilizations Studies, Jagiellonian University. Grodzka 52, p. 119

Lecture with slides

Description: The meeting is dedicated to reconsider the socio-political situation in modern Tajikistan. The speaker, who for many years, conducts research in Tajikistan, will describe as Tajiks lives in present and what kind of problems they face. In the context of the Polish discussion on refugees problems she will draw attention to Tajiks struggles, who as a result of the escalation of political repression since 2015 faced imprisonment or had to flee from their homeland. As the post-Soviet Tajikistan is a country in which the majority of the population is Islam believers, Polish border guards deny them access to the territory and asylum claims.

Lecture is held in Polish

African dance workshop

17:00 - 18:00

Organizer: International Training Centre of the Cracow Technical University
Place: Klub pod Jaszczurami, Rynek Główny 8

Performers: Students of Cracow Technical University from Angola, Congo and Brazil
Demonstration show and training of African dance, salsa. Workshops will include QUIZes about Angola, Congo and Brazil
Free of charge event

EtnoKraków / Crossroads

movie screening (documentaries, live concert documentaries)

17:00 - 19:00

Organizer: Association ROZSTAJE: u Zbiegu Kultur i Tradycji and Klub Strefa / Krakow

Place: Klub Strefa, św. Tomasza 31

Hosts: Jan Malisz / Zuza Malisz / Kacper Malisz

The movie screening will cover reports completed during the 17th and 18th edition of the international EtnoKraków / Crossroads 2015 and EtnoKraków / Crossroads 2016 festivals and the festivals' concerts recordings performed in The ICE Krakow, in the St. Catherine church and Wolnica Square in Krakow.

Free of charge event

20:00

Organizer: Association ROZSTAJE: u Zbiegu Kultur i Tradycji and Klub Strefa / Krakow

Place: Klub Strefa, św. Tomasza 31

Concert of Kapela Maliszów Band

After concert – short workshops and dancing party (traditional Polish dances)

Entry fee: 20 PLN

Masked Ball at the Villa Decius

Beginning at 20:00

Organizer: Villa Decius Association

Place: Villa Decius, ul. 28 lipca 1943r. 17a

We would like to invite you for Carnival Ball in the Villa Decius. The leitmotif of the ball are masks from all over the world. Masks, costumes, dim lights and beautiful renaissance palace interiors shall create unique and unforgettable atmosphere. Lottery and games will complement the programme and musical background will be provided by DJ and electronic violin. When buying a ticket on ekobilet.pl there is 15% discount on password: Otwarty Krakow/Open Krakow.

For more information, please call: 517 813 835.

 The organizer reserves the right to cancel the event five days before the date in case of insufficient number of participants.*